Director's Notes

First of all I hope everyone's Summer is going well. Here is an update on how things are going for your Director. Due to various complications, my progress in getting well is moving at a snail's pace and my doctor has informed me my recovery will continue to be very slow. I still need a lot of help in accomplishing even small tasks. I am not allowed to even walk with a cane until the new knee stops buckling. I will continue to communicate with you through this column and my wife, Pat.

Our last show of the season is at Bergstrom. It is set for August 18th and we need help so please volunteer to do whatever you can.

Next, we finally get to celebrate the summer's successes with a relaxing day at our picnic. As always, the Club will supply the meat so all you need to bring is a dish to share with others, your own plates, napkins and utensils.

Your director, John Horvath

Bergstrom Help Reminder

Just a reminder I will not be able to help at this year's show and we were a bit short handed at the Andrew show back in June. Therefore, I am calling on our membership to ensure that we have ample support for this show on Aug. 18. Please come out to support your Club.

Brookfield 4th of July Parade

We had a great turn out for the parade this year. Thank you to all those members that participated in it. It was a bit warm but, if I recall, it was still a lot cooler than it was last year. I do not believe we had any mishaps other than a dropped flag that I was aware of so that is always a good thing.

Sussex Lions Daze Parade

I would like to thank everyone that was able to drive in the parade. Bob and I had a stand-in because this is a busy weekend for us. Bob was in Iola and, as a Sussex Lioness, I went to Vision Forward to ride the bus so that Visually Impaired folks could come out to Lions Daze and play Blind Bingo. Thanks to Gene Caspersen who took the lead to line everyone up. One thing that continues is that we have a Club that people can always count on.

Thanks JoAnn

Hey Everybody!

Wisconsin Region members: You haven't heard the last of the OGS's!!! Ha Ha

We have yet another GRAND IDEA... We have polled the current board and they have endorsed our GRAND IDEA!!!! So please mark your calendars for the Awards Banquet January 18th at the Charcoal Grill in New Berlin. (Same place as last year).

We are going to "PEAK" your curiosity, but you won't want to miss this Banquet. You might even think about inviting a guest or two to this Gala Affair.

And if you hear any rumors.....
We suggest you don't believe them.
But if you get a Life Saver ...
Don't eat it you might need it.

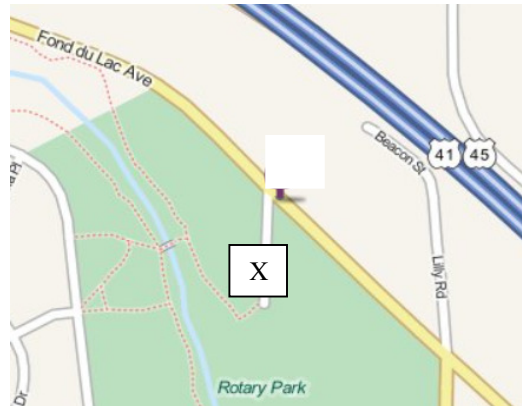

Start thinking of "Make Your Own Fun" remembrances.

Picnic – August 25

Those members that signed up to attend at one of our indoor meetings were: Caspersen (2), Dave Denmark (1), Dave Ehlers (1), Sondra Ferguson (3), Griepentrog (2), Hanson (2), Horvath (2), Kijowski (2), Ohm (2), Ott (2), Swanson (2), Zimmermann (2). Please call Darlene Griepentrog (414-354-2929) if the number you signed up has changed.

If you had not previously signed up to attend, please contact Darlene Griepentrog (414-354-2929) or JoAnn Swanson (262-246-6186) so we can arrange for proper amount of food. We do not want anybody to go away hungry. Thank you.

The club will once again provide the meat and buns. Those attending are asked to bring a dish to pass and your own plates, napkins, and silver/plastic ware. We plan to eat at 1:00 p.m. We hope to see you there!

Thank you to all those members that came to the funeral and sent cards in response to my mom passing away on June 23rd. Your concern and sympathy was much appreciated.

A special thank you to Gene Schneider for the wonderful write up about Bob in the newsletter. It just goes to show the VCCA Club and its members are the best.
